

Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada

Volunteer Opportunities for Lawyers

Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada is the agency of last resort for many low-income individuals and families who face critical legal problems that affect their basic needs. The Pro Bono Project has many volunteer opportunities available to attorneys who wish to perform pro bono services. Lawyers have the unique opportunity to positively impact the life of a low-income individual by representing them in one of many areas of civil law including children's abuse & neglect, consumer rights, family law, appeals, and more. Attorneys are also need to staff Ask-A-Lawyer programs, providing brief consultations to pro se litigants in areas such as landlord/tenant law, family law, small claims court, homeless issues, and veterans' issues. Free CLE training, primary malpractice insurance, mentors, and additional support are available to attorneys who volunteer through the Pro Bono Project. To volunteer, please contact Linda Gutierrez at lgutierrez@lacsnsn.org or (702) 386-1413. To view additional volunteer opportunities and available pro bono cases, please visit www.lacsnsnprobono.org.
